Payment Policy.

As of the first of this year 1/1/2018, I am setting new payment policy rules in order to make it clear what is expected from you. I believe this will make things easier going forward for both you and for me to keep better track of payment records.

The following are my new rules:

- If less than 24 hours notice of cancel, a fee of $100 will be charged.
- If there are circumstances that occur that are beyond your control, please make sure that you call me and we can discuss whether the charge should be waived.
- You are responsible for knowing what your deductible is. If you have a deductible, a payment toward your deductible would be appreciated at the time of your session. We will bill your insurance the same as always.
- You are also responsible for paying your co-pay at each session. Please check on what this amount is.
- If you are paying out of pocket, a lower negotiated fee will may be discussed. A statement will be provided to you which you can send to your insurance. (This will be applied to your out-of-network deductible).
